

An Emergency.

Some of the verb forms have been removed from the text. Try to complete each gap with the missing verb.

I 1) _____ a minor emergency 2) _____ into London Heathrow recently 3) _____ on runway 27R.

I 4) _____ radar _____ for the approach when we 5) _____ the wake turbulence of an A380 and the aircraft 6) _____ over at quite a dramatic bank angle 7) _____ in the Airbus systems considering us to have an elevator and aileron control system fault, that's ELAC fault on both of our ELAC computers.

As a result, the aircraft 8) _____ into, what we call, Alternate Law on an Airbus and we 9) _____ to 10) _____ manual control of the aircraft and 11) _____ it to a safe landing.

After a brief period of time, the systems 12) _____ themselves because they 13) _____ that the ELACs 14) _____ but that the aircraft 15) _____ significant turbulence on the approach and as a result all systems 16) _____ to normal and we 17) _____ a normal landing.